July 11th Report – called to order at 5:10pm

Chairing the Meeting: Walter.

Jamie, led us in O' Canada, a very, very subdued rendition... more on that later.

Visiting Rotarians – None

Guests: The ones there are just waiting to be accepted as members – David & Cathy Burnett, and Michael Neprawno (I am SO sure I spelled that wrong) – oh well he's not a member...yet (I'll get it right when he joins).

The Meeting, general notes, etc.

I guess it must be Summer, as there were only 9 member show up (on time), a few straggled in looking tanned from the golf course -Jeet, Dan (who'ds healed quite well – thanks to all those who were so concerned after Dan's haying incident).

Jokes of the week – various themes

A gentleman is permitted to join a private club. The initiation consists of holding an unprepared on-the-spot lecture, on a theme starting on a letter which is allotted to him. The man gets an S, and chooses to give his impromptu lecture on Sex.

Coming home and reporting to his wife, he chickens out and says that he spoke about Sailing. The next day, his wife meets a club member who says her hubby gave a very good lecture the previous night, and laughs out loud.

The wife replied "That's strange, I must say. He has only done it twice. The first time he got sick, and the second time he lost his hat."

The Pope was a fan

Bob arrived at YVR Airport and wandered about the terminal with tears streaming down his cheeks.

An airline employee asked him if he was OK.

"No," replied Bob

"I've lost all me luggage!"

"How'd that happen?"

"The cork fell out," said Bob.

On a rural road a state trooper pulled this farmer over and said, "Sir, do you realize your wife fell out of the car several miles back?"

To which the farmer replied, "Thank God, I thought I had gone deaf!"

You stick your poles inside me. You tie me down to get me up. I get wet before you do. What am I?
