July 4th Report – Combined Rotary/Fellowship Meeting/BBQ

Chairing the Meeting: Walter.

Ross, our host, led us in O' Canada

Visiting Rotarians – None

Guests: Too many to remember

The Meeting, general notes, etc.

The Executive made a decision and invested the cash we had sitting in the bank in two chunks. One in a 30 day cashable GIC that is earmarked for the Rotary Field House!

The rest of the meeting and Fellowship portion of the night are for those that were there...

Sergeant at Arms –Joanne waived fines today!

50/50 – No draw today.

Upcoming Agendas

July 11 - Location ABC 4:00 - Bond Preliminary Planning Meeting (choose theme, date, venue, sponsorship package, volunteer coordinator, floor show planning, advertising, menu, decorating, prize committee goals and objectives, sound, entertainment, etc. You know just an 'informal' chit-chat about a few things Bond related.
5:00 - Pacific Sport program

July 18 - TBC

July 25 - Location ABC 5:00 - Monthly regular Business meeting

Jokes of the week – Golf themed

A scratch golfer hits his ball three hundred yards straight down the fairway, and it hits a sprinkler and careens off into the woods. He finds the ball, but trees surround it. He s pissed, says what the hell, grabs his nine-iron, and hits the ball as hard as he can. It bounces off a tree back at the golfer's head and kills him.

He arrives in heaven, and God himself is at the Pearly Gates to greet him. Looking up his records, God sees that the guy golf's and says, "Are you any good?"

The golfer looks at God and says, "I got here in two, didn't I?"
